

ARE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS TRUE OR FALSE? JUSTIFY YOUR ANSWER BY CITING THE CORRESPONDING WORDS OR SENTENCES OF THE TEXT (2 POINTS; 0.5 POINTS EACH).

1. False. "I was in Spain on a two-week family vacation."
2. False. "You no longer need to visit Paris for macarons from Ladurée because you can find them at shops in major U.S. cities or have them delivered to your home via Goldbelly."
3. True. "The city now has a network of international food markets offering immediate access to authentic ingredients and dishes."
4. False. "it's impossible to experience it through delivery apps or social media."

2) ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS USING INFORMATION FROM THE TEXT. YOUR ANSWERS SHOULD NOT BE A LITERAL COPY OF THE TEXT, ALTHOUGH SOME WORDS THAT APPEAR IN THE TEXT CAN BE USED (2 POINTS; 1 POINT EACH).

1. What does Chila refer to in the text?
Chila is a Chinese restaurant in Madrid where the author had the most memorable meal of the trip.
2. Why does the author say that food tourism has become a victim of its own success?
Famous foods from different places can now be found or delivered almost anywhere, so people no longer need to travel to those places to try them.

3) VOCABULARY

3.1 Find one word in the text for this definition (0.3 POINTS):

- a) Achievement of recognition or a high status in a field: success

3.2 Find a synonym in the text for each of the words below (1.2 POINTS; 0.4 POINTS EACH):

- a) tasted: savored
- b) superior: premium
- c) decrease: decline

4) MULTIPLE CHOICE OPTION EXERCISE. CHOOSE THE MOST APPROPRIATE ANSWER FOR EACH QUESTION (a, b, c, or d) ACCORDING TO THE INFORMATION GIVEN IN THE TEXT (1.5 POINT; 0.5 POINTS EACH).

1. Where are food treasures in back alleys bookmarked now?
C) TikTok
2. In what city, according to the text, can you find fresh pasta?
C) New York
3. Where is the Parisian Chinatown located?
C) In Paris's 13th Arrondissement